

Jewish educators attend seminar

Jewish educators, from eight local synagogues and day schools attended a seminar entitled, "Creating Meaningful Jewish Art," at the home of Joyce Straus on October 16.

During this Jewish Community

Center sponsored event, 27 Jewish educators had an opportunity to learn from nationally acclaimed artist, Joyce Straus, as well from each other. Ms. Straus presented a variety of traditional as well as non-traditional examples of art for the group to explore. This event was also an opportunity for the JCC and King David Memorial Chapel and Cemetery to kick off their 2003 Jewish calendar contest.

The calendar contest is open to all students in kindergarten through twelfth grade. Entrants submit artwork and/or poetry for possible inclusion in a 2003-2004 Jewish community calendar. Entry information is available at the JCC by calling 794-0090.

Joyce Straus nationally acclaimed artist